Nonstop Trip From Tokyo To Australia

NEWCASTLE, Australia (AP) — Four U.S. Air Force F84 Thunderjets, fighter-bombers which can carry the A-bomb, completed a record, nonstop flight of 4,840 miles from Tokyo Wednesday.

The sleek, single-engined machines, refueled three times in the air, spanned the sea, the equator and two seasons in 12 hours, 2 minutes.

It was a mid-spring day when they took off from Tokyo's Yokota Air Base Wednesday; a chill, gusty fall day when they landed at this city on Australia's east coast.

Though the flight covered 210 more miles than similar craft ever had done nonstop before, the pilots estimated they could have gone on six hours more—at least 2,000 miles—if necessary.

Col. Harold M. McClelland of Avon Park, Fla., was the leader. His command had been depleted en route by two planes. One of the six original starters developed fuel trouble that caused it to crash in Japan, the pilot parachuting. Another dropped out at Guam because of radio trouble.

The four other pilots chalked up a record Tokyo-Australia nonstop flight as well as the new nonstop mark for single-engine jets.

The flight, Operation Handclasp, was planned to show the strength of defense links between Australia and U.S. bases in the Far East. The United States and Australia are allies in the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

The former record was set Aug. 30, 1953, when Brig. Gen. Thayer Oids led a 4,630-mile flight of 20 F84s from Turner Air Force Base in Georgia to England. On the same day, eight other Thunderjets flew 4,460 miles from Turner to French Morocco. These also were refueled aloft.

McClelland was the first of the four pilots to land here. The others, in the order they landed, were Lt. Gerald J. Robinson of Corbouldale, Pa.; Lt. Col. Virgil K. Moroney of Pine Bluff, Ark.; and Lt. William E. Miller of Columbus, Ohio.

Of the six Thunderjets which took off from Yokota Air Base, one piloted by Lt. Wilford R. Ladd of Georgetown, Ky., developed fuel trouble about 100 miles out and turned back. Later Ladd parachuted safely just before the plane crashed near Nagoya, Japan.

Another Thunderjet piloted by Ted K. Case of Safford, Ariz., reached Guam with the others but dropped out there because of radio trouble.

Adenauer Recalls Envoys For Talks On German Policy

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer Wednesday night called home his ambassadors to Washington, London and Paris for urgent consultation on big power political moves.

A senior foreign office official told The Associated Press Wednesday night:

"The Chancellor feels that the time has arrived when the nation's leading diplomatic representatives must receive a report on the exact line of German policy concerning possible neutrality offers by the Russians and the possibility of an agreement on German unification at a Big Four conference."

This so-called meeting at the summit would bring together President Eisenhower, Soviet Premier Bulganin, British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Faure, probably in August. Much spade work would be done before then in the major diplomatic capitals.

The Foreign Office, describing the conferences as most urgent, said Adenauer feels that recent Soviet moves may indicate that a new era in East-West relations is starting that could lead to unification of Germany.

TWO KILLED IN APRIL IN MINE ACCIDENTS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Two miners, one in Franklin and one in Marion County, were killed during April in haulage accidents, the State Mines and Minerals Department reported Wednesday.

The deaths brought fatalities for the year so far to seven. There were 70 nonfatal accidents in April, the department said.

Commercial fertilizers generally are made up of potash, nitrogen, and phosphoric acid.

Senate Probers Start New Hunt For Bribery

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators launched a new "bribery and corruption" hunt Wednesday and right off the bat heard charges of cash payments and a coat deal in connection with government contracts.

The day's star witness, however, turned out to be the man with two names.

He got into the picture when a pretty ex-bookkeeper named him as the "Mr. Samuels" who, she said, got mysterious envelopes from Rubin late in 1952.

"I was given the strong impression by Mr. Rubin," said the witness, Mrs. Ruth Evelyn Picout of Ellenville, N. Y., "that the envelopes contained money."

Future A-Powered Vacuum Cleaner To Have Memory

NEW YORK (AP) — A self-operating, atomic-powered vacuum cleaner, equipped with a magnetic memory to guide it around a room, may be a standard household appliance in about 10 years, a New York manufacturer said Wednesday.

Alex Lewyt, president of Lewyt Corp., makers of vacuum cleaners and electronic equipment, told a meeting of electronic engineers that his engineers have been experimenting with a self-operating cleaner for the last six years.

Lewyt said a miniature computer device with a magnetic memory may be built inside the cleaner, and a dial would be pre-set to follow the cleaning pattern of the room.

House Defeats Attempt To Change Army Reserve Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House quit in mid-flight Wednesday night over President Eisenhower's new military reserve program after defeating a major attempt to change the controversial measure.

With a number of amendments still pending, the House agreed to come in Thursday morning to finish considering a bill designed to add two million men to the active reserves.

Behind bipartisan leadership, the House defeated 145-109 a proposal by Rep. Barden (D-N.C.) to allow college students to fulfill all military obligations by attending a three-month summer encampment each year for four years.

Opponents protested the proposal would wreck the planned reserve force and would be too costly to handle. They also said it would discriminate against boys who couldn't go to college.

This vote was regarded as an important test of the chances of getting through the administration bill which is back by both Republican and Democratic leaders. Its main new features are a form of compulsion to keep reservists in training, and a plan for six-month active duty volunteers who would serve thereafter for 7½ years in the reserve.

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—Six persons have drowned and 10,000 have been made homeless in floods throughout Ceylon after five days of heavy monsoon rains.

Sec. Benson Discusses Value Of Prayer With Reporters

WASHINGTON (AP)—The big man in the horn-rimmed glasses stood at the door, greeting each person.

In these busy days, most Cabinet officers don't bother with such homey touches as shaking hands with each reporter who attends their news conferences. But the secretary of agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson, does.

Furthermore, Benson, a devout Mormon, undoubtedly is the only Cabinet member who would discuss at length with reporters the value of prayer in helping solve his department's problems.

During a recent trip West to observe drought conditions, Benson suggested to several governors, maybe it would help to set aside a special day of prayer for rain.

It since has rained in some of the area. Had a special day of prayer been held?

Benson said he hadn't heard of any. "But of course it would be

To Map Conduct Code For Captured Army Personnel

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government assigned a committee Wednesday to write a code of conduct for American military personnel captured and put under torture by Communists.

Defense Secretary Wilson also asked this group of Pentagon officials and retired generals and admirals to recommend ways for training military personnel to defend themselves against brainwashing and other physical and mental torture in event of capture. The problem of defense against enemy efforts to indoctrinate prisoners with Communist propaganda also will be studied.

Appointment of the group reflects concern over the number of Americans who broke under Communist captivity in Korea and for the smaller number who were infected by Communist teaching in prison camps, officials said.

Free Air Force Officer Sentenced In Korean Murder

LOMPOC, Calif. (AP) — An Air Force officer was released from prison Wednesday after serving 20 months of a five-year sentence for the murder of a South Korean. He said he will continue fighting to clear his name.

First Lt. George Schreiber was ordered released from prison by Air Force Secretary Harold Talbot, but the secretary also ordered him dismissed from the service. The dismissal is equivalent to a dishonorable discharge for an enlisted man and Schreiber, 27, will lose his veterans' benefits and services.

"I am not screaming for mercy or crying sour grapes," said Schreiber as he left the U.S. Disciplinary Barracks at Camp Cook. "All I want is a cold appraisal of the whole thing."

To Launch Second A-Powered Sub About Mid-July

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy announced Wednesday night that the Seawolf, second nuclear submarine, will be launched at Groton, Conn., "about mid-July."

The Seawolf externally is virtually a sister ship of the 3,000-ton Nautilus which went to sea last January. The Nautilus cost about $5 million dollars.

A year elapsed between the launching of the Nautilus and the time when all installations were complete and the boat ready for sea. Because of experience gained in building the Nautilus the Seawolf may be ready sooner.

While the two atomic submarines look much alike, there will be a major difference in their propulsion plants.

The Nautilus' atomic reactor, which produces steam for the turbine system, is of a "thermal" type, in which the speed of neutrons during the fission process is relatively slow. The "intermediate" reactor being built for the Seawolf will have a neutron speed considerably faster than the thermal type. A fast neutron is less likely to be "captured" by the surrounding metal structure of a reactor. Such capture would tend to reduce the heat-producing efficiency of the reactor.

LETTER-OPENING AT POSTOFFICE

CHICAGO (AP) — Post Office Inspector Jerome Williamson is inviting 10,000 Chicagoans into his office to open letters addressed to them.

But it isn't a social call. Williamson said Wednesday the 10,000 pieces of mail have been intercepted because they contain tickets for the Jamaica Sweepstakes.

The sweepstakes, Williamson said, is held June 25 in Kingston, Jamaica, British West Indies, and offers a $28,000 first prize.

Addressees who show up will be given the opportunity to open the letters in the presence of inspectors. Those containing legitimate mail will be turned over to the addressee.

But any tickets for the sweepstakes will be confiscated, Williamson said, because the letters were mailed into the United States in violation of federal lottery laws.

Release Of Polio Vaccine Held Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new delay in further releases of Salk polio vaccine was discovered Wednesday night pending what a Public Health Service spokesman called "another look-see at this whole very confused picture."

The disclosure came when a reporter asked why there had been no report on the findings of a federal inspection team which has completed a visit to Wyeth Laboratories, Inc., at Marietta, Pa.

"There will be no further releases of vaccine from any manufacturer for several days," a spokesman said. He added the situation did not affect the 7,850,000 cubic centimeters of vaccine produced by two other laboratories and approved for use in the nationwide immunization program. Much of this has already been used and what is left is still approved for use.

Another spokesman added: "Nothing has been found wrong with the vaccine" at Wyeth's.

He described the delay as simply another precautionary measure. He explained that government scientific inspectors conducting a plant-by-plant study have been seeking to develop refined methods for studying and analyzing protocols—scientific data submitted by manufacturers on which government clearance on the vaccine is based.

"They have now developed those and now they are going to review them," the spokesman said. Later Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, surgeon general of the Public Health Service, confirmed that "there will be no further announcement with respect to the release of poliovirus vaccine for the next several days."

Dr. Scheele added: "This should not be inferred as reflecting in any way on the vaccine of the companies whose manufacturing and testing processes are under study."

Following inspection tours of Parke, Davis & Co., Detroit, and Eli Lilly Co., Indianapolis, the government has okayed almost eight million cubic centimeters of vaccine produced by these firms. Some of this has already been administered; some has not yet been distributed.

Seventy-seven out of more than five million children inoculated with the vaccine have subsequently come down with polio. Five of the cases involved the Wyeth product, the Public Health Service said, two of them having been confirmed Wednesday.

In Pittsburgh, Dr. Jonas Salk, developer of the vaccine, told a group of scientists that cases of polio reported after injections of the vaccine are "clearly coincidental."

Report On Polio Vaccine Given In Milkshakes

SOMONA, Calif. (AP)—Tests show a vaccine made from live viruses—and administered through milkshakes—produces immunity to two of the three kinds of polio in 14 to 23 days, a group of experimenters reported Wednesday.

These results are much faster than with the Salk vaccine now being administered throughout the country. The Salk product, however, made from killed virus, gives protection against all three types of the disease.

It takes several months for immunity to develop fully after the Salk injections, administered by hypodermic needle.

Youngsters taking the vaccine made from live virus didn't wince. Small doses were added to raspberry milkshakes which they drank.

How long the immunity from the live virus vaccine will last is a question which only time can answer, said the researchers. The group includes Dr. Karl F. Meyer, of the University of California's Hooper Foundation; Dr. Hilary Koprowski, who first developed the vaccine, and Dr. Thomas L. Nelson.

Experts generally have expressed the belief that a vaccine made from live viruses will be the eventual answer to the polio problem because it stands the best chance of producing long-term immunity. Dr. Jonas E. Salk has said he believes the vaccine he developed will confer long-lasting immunity but that booster shots probably will be required to keep it at top-notch effectiveness.

An earlier form of Koprowski vaccine against Type II polio has remained effective for five years in an Eastern study and in a group of children here for three years.

Tests with a newer Koprowski material, designed to protect against Types I and II polio, were administered to 52 children at the Sonoma State Home here April 4. It was from these tests that he speedily immunity developed.

Emphasizes His Stand Against Appeasement

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower rejected Wednesday any idea that America may have lost control of the air to Russia.

It is "just not true," Eisenhower said, to say that "we have lost in a twinkling all of this great technical development and technical knowledge as well as the numbers in our total aircraft."

The President spoke up at a news conference at which he also:

Defended Secretary of Welfare Hobby's handling of the polio vaccine problem — he said it would be a waste of time to comment on a demand by Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) that she be removed for incompetency.

Declared with table-thumping emphasis that he is heading into a Big Four meeting with Russia with "no appeasement in my heart."

He said he doesn't believe the American people suspect their government is apt to fall.

Noted that the thought seems to be developing that "there might be built up a series of neutralized states from north to south through Europe." But he said the peace treaty neutralizing Austria doesn't mean "a disarmed Austria" nor "a military blank." That kind of neutrality, of a kind he said Switzerland would fight to the death to protect, "is a far different thing from just a military vacuum."

The air power issue was pegged to a speech in which Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), former Air Force secretary, told the Senate Tuesday this country and the free world may have lost control of the air to Russia, Symington called for an investigation to determine the relative strength of Russian and free world forces in all military categories, in the light of flights of new type planes over Moscow early this month.

Eisenhower was asked whether he thinks this country has lost control of the air to Russia.

"As anybody who is experienced in warfare knows," he said, "control of the air is a relative thing, and anybody with a certain amount of air force in action can gain control over a place where he chooses to concentrate his air, and for a given space of time. . . even in the face of quite great general superiority on the other side."

"The Germans did it to us as late as January 1945."

The chief executive conceded that the United States may not have as many B52 intercontinental jet bombers "as we should like at this moment."

"I don't know the exact number," he said. "But to say that we have lost in a twinkling all of this great technical development and technical excellence as well as the numbers in our total aircraft is just not true."

There was nothing to clarify whether he meant that the United States has or hasn't lost superiority in numbers of planes, without being surpassed in quality. Russia generally is credited with having far more military aircraft of all types than the United States, with the exception of strategic long-range bombers.

Tipoff Foils Mail Robbery; Arrest Four, One Policeman

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A policeman and four other persons were in custody Wednesday after a heavily armed posse nipped an attempt to pull a million dollar mail robbery.

Officers with riot guns and rifles ambushed three of the men at the post office Tuesday night. They trapped them with armored cars and on foot after receiving a tip about an elaborate plan to take the money by force.

The robbery attempt was one of the largest against the mails on record in this country.

In 1924 two million dollars in Federal Reserve cash and securities was stolen from a Milwaukee Railroad mail car at Rondout, Ill. Both gangs were caught.

The huge sum—large bills in one mail sack—was to be transported from the post office two blocks to the railroad station to be shipped to the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco. The money, from Las Vegas banks, included large deposits from gambling casinos.

"Our forces were dispersed around the post office in such a way that we would have been able to mow the gang down instantly," said Police Chief A. H. Kennedy.

"And we would have, if any of them had fired a shot."

The million dollars, Kennedy said, was shipped earlier Tuesday night.

The gang became suspicious, driver and one guard.

Stevenson Sees United Democratic Party In 1956

CHICAGO (AP) — Adlai Stevenson expressed confidence Wednesday that the Democrats will be a united party in 1956.

"For the past two years," the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee said, "I have done all I could to assure a united Democratic party in 1956. I am sure that is the wish and intention of all good Democrats and I firmly believe this is what we're going to have."

Stevenson was interviewed by newsmen at Midway Airport on his return to Chicago from a four-week business trip to Africa in connection with his private law practice.

Reporters questioned him about recent statements of party leaders regarding loyalty to the party's nominee by convention delegates in their home states. Stevenson said his personal views are:

"I believe that those who have strayed and returned in good faith should be welcomed back to the Democratic fold. I am against loyalty oaths but am very much in favor of loyalty and good faith in politics, and I believe a delegate who takes part in any Democratic decision-making process bears a serious obligation to abide by a majority decision unless his conscience forbids him to."

RED SIGNAL

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP) — Patrolman Calvin Hutchinson tagged a car for overtime parking, then happened to look in the open dashboard compartment. There he saw a stack of old, unpaid traffic tickets. Each was smudged with red. They had been used to blot a lady's lipstick.

Hutchinson waited for the woman to appear, then escorted her to police headquarters. She forked over $14 for the old tickets, plus 25 cents for the fresh one.

The department charges a maximum $1 for old tickets.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — George P. Vierheiler, director of the St. Louis Zoo, is mourning the enmeshment of civilization on old snake haunts in Florida.

He says he really had to beat the bushes this year for the zoo's snake quota.

"Back in 1928 and later," he recalls, "You would build a fire at one end of an Everglades clearing and wait for the snakes to crawl into view."

Editorial Comment

THE RECORD

We seem to be well into the new pact-making season with the Communists. Optimism runs high in some quarters that the Reds are in a congenial mood and may really relax the Cold War a little.

Whenever enthusiasm mounts in this fashion, it is well to look back and see how Communists execute agreements they make. Some of their major postwar violations are of course an old story now. But they've been breaking the newer agreements, too.

As a prime exhibit, we can offer last year's Indochina truce. Among the provisions was one in which the Vietminh Reds agreed to allow residents of North Viet Nam to leave that Communist-acquired land for South Viet Nam if they wished.

Evidence in the hands of the International Control Commission indicates, however, that the Vietminh leaders have prevented the departure of hundreds of thousands who want to leave. Recently Canadian Foreign Minister Lester Pearson said that unless more time is allowed for the refugee movement, these people will be trapped in Communist hands.

In the larger picture this might seem to some a minor affair. It isn't. The sanctity of an agreement affecting human freedom is at stake.

Boyle's Column

NEW YORK (AP)—Would it help out the divorce rate in America if every year we had a week dedicated to husband worship?

A hundred Hindu wives in India recently completed a five-day festival of husband worship. In one ceremony during the festival each wife washed her husband's feet, and a Hindu mystic expressed hope this rite "will end divorce."

Well, it was a heart warming thought. But would it work here? Many foreigners accuse Americans of woman worship. They feel our high divorce rate stems from the fact the ladies have too much power in this country—that a wife loses respect for a husband she can wear like a watch or dangle like a marionette.

Hmmmm. After all, we do celebrate things like national day, pickles month. Why not set aside one measly week a year for husband worship? That would still leave us 51 weeks of wife worship—surely enough to keep any reasonable woman happy.

So, fired up with the heady prospects of launching America's first annual worship your husband week, I broached the project to a guy I know whom everybody calls "the oldtimer." He is wise in the ways of marriage, a combat veteran scarred but unbroken by a 30-year tour of duty on the same matrimonial battlefield.

Somewhat to my surprise, the oldtimer, after listening to my proposal, immediately threw cold water on it.

"Son, I know it sounds like heaven," he said, "but that's why it won't work. Heaven don't work on earth."

"You mean you wouldn't enjoy having your wife worship you for a week out of every year?" I asked.

"Lord a-mighty, no! he thundered. 'I don't know how those Hindu men stood it, having their womenfolk coming around worshipping 'em and a-washin' their feet for five whole days. Father's Day is almost more than I can bear with my wife and kids behaving like simpering idiots seeing me for the first time. You haven't thought this thing through.'"

"I quit being her slave the day I told her I worshipped her. I've been telling her that ever since. When you keep telling a woman you worship her, she has to let you have your own way—for fear you'll stop telling her. If there's a slave in the family now, well—it ain't me."

The oldtimer paused for breath.

"Let's have no more nonsense about husband worship," he said. "A thing like that could snowball and ruin every sensible marriage in America."

"Any husband who lets his wife put him on a pedestal will find he's turned his home into a museum and himself into a piece of statuary."

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby lacked foresight on the public desire for antipolio vaccine. And her Department of Health Education and Welfare guessed wrong on the supply of it.

Mrs. Hobby, explaining why her department made no plans far ahead, says, "I believe no one could have foreseen the public demand" for it. She says now the shortage is "tremendous."

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, a private organization, planned months ahead for getting vaccine to nine million first and second-grade children, considered most susceptible to polio, once a nationwide test proved it effective.

It contracted with six manufacturers to make enough vaccine for that number. The manufacturers began work last November. It takes 90 days to turn out a batch of vaccine.

But there are 55 million children age 1 through 19, who are more susceptible to polio than adults. This meant the 46 million not in the first and second grades would have to wait. In other words: there would be a shortage for many months.

Mrs. Hobby's department could have started planning distribution last fall when the foundation placed its orders for vaccine or any time between last fall and April 12, when test results were announced.

Monday Sen. Lehman (D-N.Y.), at a hearing before the Senate's Labor and Public Welfare Committee, asked Mrs. Hobby why planning hadn't been done ahead of time. It was then she conceded she didn't foresee the public demand.

Monday, Mrs. Hobby made her recommendations, based on consultations with medical and citizen groups. She asked voluntary channeled among state governments and doctors, with the government putting up 28 million dollars to buy vaccine for those who couldn't afford it.

On April 12 her department said that by Aug. 1 every child in the nation between 1 and 9 would be inoculated against polio. Monday, Mrs. Hobby's special aide, Dr. Chester Keefer said the foundation has ordered 18 million cubic centimeters of vaccine for those first and second-graders and so far has received a little over seven million. That means the manufacturers still have to supply it with 11 million cubic centimeters.

Keefer said it may be mid-August before the foundation's order is filled. This means those above and below the first and second grades won't get shots before then.

And Dr. Leola Scheele, surgeon general of the U. S. Public Health Service, part of Mrs. Hobby's department, said he doesn't think the manufacturers can go into large-scale production before next fall or winter.

So, he said, he couldn't predict what the supply will be at the peak of the polio season, which comes between mid-August and mid-September.

Plastic Surgery May Be Helpful for Protruding Ears

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

A number of problems of interest to parents are presented today.

Q—We have an infant who has inherited badly protruding ears. Can plastic surgery be done for this and are there unfavorable effects to such an operation? —Mrs. S.

A—In all probability plastic surgery (if it is really necessary) could be successfully performed for protruding ears. Competent plastic surgeons have had considerable success in this field and it seems unlikely that there would be any unfavorable side effects.

Q—My five-year-old daughter complains that her hands are so dry when she wakes up that she licks them. Frequently she does this in her sleep also. I tried putting cold cream on the hands but this does not seem to help. Have you any suggestions? —Mrs. T.

A—One would suspect that this was more likely a habit than anything wrong with the skin of the hands, though the latter possibility could not be excluded without examining the skin. It might be possible to put light gloves or mittens tied at the wrists on your little girl so that when she first wakes she does not lick her hands.

Q—Our son, age 5 months, has one undescended testicle. When is it advisable to get hormone shots? Is surgery sometimes used? —Mrs. E.

A—It is difficult to answer this question because of difference of professional opinion. The main problem is that a testicle which does not descend by the time of maturity fails to fulfill its normal function of sperm production. Furthermore a high percentage of those with undescended testicles have a hernia or rupture as well.

In one recent report it was suggested that injection of hormones with the aim of bringing the testicle down could be begun as early as two years of age though others prefer starting it at around five. Sometimes this treatment is successful and sometimes not; if it is not, bringing the testicle down by surgery seems to be advisable before the age of 12. Something should be tried at five years old and the situation should be corrected before 12.

Q—I would like to know if a baby can live without a blood vessel between the heart and lungs? —Mrs. E. D.

A—If there is no circulation between the heart and the lungs life is impossible since blood gets all of its oxygen by coming in contact with air in the lungs.

Russia's 'New' Peace Plan Same Old Model, New Grille

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—First examination of Russia's latest disarmament proposal shows it to be as full of bugs as a back-yard garden.

This is not something for consideration by the proposed Big Four Conference of the heads of government and their foreign ministers. The Russians propose that their new plan be put into effect by the United Nations General Assembly which meets next in September.

As a starter, the plan has been presented to the U.N.'s third special disarmament subcommittee now meeting in London.

Basically, this is the same old Russian plan. Its essentials are: Ban the atomic bomb. Abolish all foreign military bases. Then banish all international propaganda for war.

The Russians have modified their position on a few points.

Their previous stand has been that all conventional armaments be reduced by a third. Under that formula, Russia and Red China, with the largest armies, would stay that way.

NOW THE RUSSIANS propose that America, Russia and Free China be allowed a maximum of 1,500,000 men, Britain and France 650,000 each.

This is approximately what Sir Gladwyn Jebb of the U.K. proposed for the western powers in 1952. The Russians turned it down then.

But it is noticeable that under this plan the two Communist powers would have a 3,000,000 man maximum force while the three western permanent Security Council members would have 2,800,000.

The Russian plan would freeze all military budgets and armed forces at figures no higher than on Dec. 31, 1954.

This would mean western Germany would not be rearmcd. Also, all foreign forces would be withdrawn from Germany and all military bases on foreign soil would be dismantled. The aim here clearly is to wreck the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

In the past the Russians have always insisted on voluntary reporting of armed strength and no census or inspection by international teams of observers. This would still be their basis for the first report on armaments, within one month after agreement on a U.N. disarmament convention.

BUT THE RUSSIANS have now swung over at least part way to propose two kinds of inspection.

One would be an international commission reporting to the U.N. Security Council on the reduction and destruction of atomic weapons. This commission would also be responsible for bans on the further testing of atomic weapons and their use—except in defensive warfare approved by the Security Council.

Since the Russians could use their veto in Security Council, that does seem to stop effective action there.

The other inspection which the Russians now say they will accept is an international control agency under the General Assembly. It would be authorized to set up control posts in big ports, rail centers, motor roads and airfields. It would have unlimited access to all governments' legislative and executive information on armaments and budgets.

The U.S. position on controls, going back to the original Baruch plan, has been that international control over the production of atomic energy materials be established first. After these controls were working, the bomb would then be banned.

LAST YEAR Sir Gladwyn Jebb and Jules Moch of France proposed gradual imposition of controls, one step at a time, as practical methods could be devised on pilot operations.

The Russians turned that down. But the catch in their new plan is how the control posts would be manned, what powers they would have, whether they would be armed and who would pay them? Perhaps a million men would be required.

Past experience with Communists on international control teams in Germany, Korea and Indochina has not been good.

The Russians' new proposal on atomic matters would go far beyond mere disarmament. It would require states with experience in the production of atomic energy to share their knowledge and secrets with all other countries.

President Eisenhower's atom-for-peace plan of December, 1953, offered the Russians a deal of this sort. Up to now they have spurned it.

The Russians also propose that all international trade barriers be dropped as part of their disarmament plan. This is intended to end the present free-world embargoes on shipping strategic materials to the Communist countries.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—If you think you have troubles getting your jalopy started in the morning, consider Jim Ruman's chore. He has 150 ancient autos in his care, ranging back to an 1898 horseless carriage.

Jim is the transportation head at 20th Century-Fox. That means he must supply movies with cars, both antiquated and brand-new.

The new cars are a cinch. Like several other studios, 20th has a tie-up with a major auto firm, which provides new cars for virtually nothing. The car company figures that having its product seen in big pictures is well worth the expense.

Old cars are asy for 20th, too, because the studio owns one of the biggest collections of antique autos in the world.

Says Jim: "It all started about 11 years ago when I took over the department. I like antiques and I thought we ought to start a collection of old autos."

"It turned out to be a good idea from the start. When I was in the Midwest, a woman in Ohio called me and said she had a 1902 Columbus which she had owned for 40 years. It still had the original top and paint on it. I bought it and had it shipped to Hollywood."

"When I got back, I picked up the script of 'Captain Eddie,' the Eddie Rickenbacker story. One scene had him working on a car in a horseless carriage factory around the turn of the century. The Columbus, which was built by the Columbus Buggy Co. and Harvey Firestone Sr., fit perfectly."

The 20th collection now numbers 150 oldtime cars, dating back to an 1898 Schacht. Among the other nities are a 1903 Ford, one of the first off the initial assembly line; a 1908 Sears Roebuck and a 1908 Maxwell.

The cars are listed in a file according to vintage, with a cross-file providing a picture and details. Usually the correct auto can be found in the studio's long shed that houses the oldtimers. A file is kept of nearby cars that can be rented from private owners.

JHS Class Of '45 To Hold Autumn Reunion

The Jacksonville High School graduating class of 1945 is laying final plans for a tenth anniversary reunion. The class, before gradua- tion that year, agreed that a get- together should be held in 1955.

A banquet at the Dunlap Hotel September 3 for the graduates and their mates is planned, together with a family picnic at MacMurray cabin September 4.

Officers of the class who are organizing the reunion include president Scott McDonald, elected in the spring of 1945 to replace How- ard Haynes who entered service early in his senior year; vice pres- ident John Grogan, who also entered service; secretary Wanda Hopper Lowe; treasurer Fred Coe, and fac- ulty adviser Miss Irene Groves.

Several members of the class have met with Mrs. Lowe to get final plans underway.

Among those attending these sessions were Scott McDonald and Wanda Hopper Lowe of Spring- field, Fran Lee Pond of Bluffs, and Lois Ingels Freeman, Virginia Ste- wart Beerup, Wanda Dobbs Ward, Jim Spink, C. J. Kane and Bill Ward, all of Jacksonville.

Announcements of the reunion were prepared and mailed by Vir- ginia Beerup and Lois Freeman. Questionnaires asking the gradu- ates to outline their activities dur- ing the past ten years were sent out with the announcements, and are due back to Wanda Dobbs Ward, 126 Diamond Court, Jacksonville, by June 10. The information provided by the forms will be issued to class members in a newsletter later in the summer.

Arrange Banquet, Picnic
C. J. Kane and Bill Ward are working with the hotel and Mac- Murray college to make final ar- rangements for the banquet and picnic. Fran Lee Pond will head the banquet decoration committee. Jim Spink and Scott McDonald have been working to locate class members whose addresses have been lost.

Among the unavailable addresses are those of Sam Caldwell, Wallace Critchfield, Matt Fortado, Bernice Griffith, Barb Hacker, Bob Six, Barb Stevenson, Charles Steiner and Norma Williams.

Committees are yet incomplete and the class officers ask that any class member willing to help con- tact Wanda Lowe or another mem- ber of the present committees.

High school principal John Ag- ger reminded class members that they bought a bond in their sopho- more years which can now be used to help defray expenses of the re- union.

Blue Lustre leaves no foreign residue in the nap after clean- ing. The pile is left open and fluffy and the colors are re- stored to original brilliance as if by magic. All this plus the fact that it's easy to apply and safe for the finest fabrics makes Blue Lustre the answer to the wall to wall carpet clean- ing problem.

Blue Lustre is a concentrate and inexpensive to use. A half gallon will clean three 9x12 rugs.

PICNIC FUNDS CARE FOR PINE TREE CEMETERY

BY MILDRED WILKINSON
PATTERSON—As the Pine Tree cemetery has, in the last decade become one of the best known small cemeteries in Greene county, and as it's past is so closely linked to the present, and as in its soil rests the remains of many of those who pioneered the wilderness and laid the foundation for the progressive community which surrounds it, it seems only fitting there should be a record of its origin and the facts pertaining to the later changing of the name from "The Martin Graveyard" to "The Pine Tree Cemetery."

"The Martin Graveyard" was named for Reuben Martin, its founder, who came to Greene county in 1830.

In 1832 he selected the plot of land, later to be known as "The Martin Graveyard," as a burial place for their twin babies who died in infancy. The spot where the babies were buried was later covered by the large elm tree, which was recently removed, the head and foot stones, "just plain lime rock," is still in place at both of the graves. At the time of the burial Mr. Martin believed he was burying them on his own ground, and as the community had no public burial place he built a fence around the plot and gave it to the community as a free public graveyard. The earliest grave with a dated slab is that of an infant, Edmund P. Edwards, who died in 1837.

Discover Old Deed
Before Mr. Martin's death, which occurred in 1855, it was discovered by a survey, that the land on which the graveyard was located, belonged to John Hicks, who in 1809, deeded to the Martin Graveyard, free of charge, the one and one half acres of the original yard. Named in the deed as trustees are the names of Josiah Jones, Ashley L. Steelman and Joel A. Cunningham, Sr.

In 1871 Mr. Hicks deeded an additional one half acre of land to the graveyard and named as trustees in this deed were the names of Joel Cunningham, Jr., Ashley L. Steelman and John Jones.

There are no available records of the proceedings of the trustees until 1906, and it is meager, as 17 pages 3 to 19, have been cut or torn from the old ledger. However, it is known that in the early days of the graveyard's existence and in the years immediately following 1900, that, as the burial places were free, families marked off and claimed burial plots, and in most instances more than would ever be used by those who claimed them, therefore there is very little uniformity in the location of lots and monuments, and there is almost one hundred unmarked graves.

Small Sums For Care

In 1906 the treasurer of Martin Graveyard has listed fifty-nine persons interested in Martin Graveyard. According to the treasurer's report these fifty-nine people donated $7 that year for cleaning the graveyard. In 1907 the treasurer's record shows that $18 was paid for mowing, leaving a balance on hand of $7.50. In 1910 the treasurer's report shows that $8 was paid out for a cable for hitching racks and the balance on hand by three zeros.

In 1910 the trustees, A. T. Steelman, J. A. Cunningham and J. P. Sherwin, purchased an additional acre of land from Robert Peebles, this being the second addition. The records show that the land cost $150 and the money for same was advanced by J. F. Sherwin, $100; A. T. Steelman, $25; W. H. Hanks, $12.50, and W. P. Hitch, $12.50. Hanks and Hitch were repaid in 1911, and Sherwin and Steelman in 1917.

In 1912 the cemetery was incorporated under the 1903 Cemetery Act, as a non-profit association. The petition for this charter was signed by W. C. Linder, W. H. Hanks, J. F. Sherwin, E. H. Wilkinson, A. T. Steelman, B. F. Ford, W. P. Hitch, J. I. Groce, John Hahn and Albert Hanback.

In 1914 the second addition was surveyed and laid off in lots, 12 by 24, and the cemetery was authorized to sell and furnish deeds to purchaser.

It was intended by the petitioners to retain the original name, but on submitting the petition they were informed that as there was already an association previously chartered under the name of "Martin Cemetery Association," they would be required to select a new name, and other names were selected with the same results.

Named For Lone Sentinel

At that time there was one pine tree in the old cemetery, near the grave of Mrs. Mittie Floyd, and it was suggested by one of the petitioners, Mrs. J. F. Sherwin, that the name of "Pine Tree Cemetery Association" be submitted. The changing of the name caused some criticism, because several thought that the name should not have been changed, but it was necessary, in order to obtain a charter, and there is no doubt that the incorporation of the cemetery marked a turning point in its affairs, while, although it was not until 1941 that any serious action was taken in the upkeep, the fact that there was some income from the sale of lots, which added to the few donations received, enabled the trustees to keep up the fences, etc., and later purchase additional land.

Previous to 1941 the cemetery was in a very deplorable condition, the native prairie grass grew several feet high. The custom was to hire someone to scythe it and in some years it's only care was to burn it off. None of the excess dirt from graves was moved and many graves neglected to the point where they had almost settled to the boxes.

RESCUE IN MID-AIR—An exciting rescue operation is re-enacted in the skies over Langley Air Force Base, Va. Two KB-29 tankers, each with an engine gone and in danger of losing their propellers, feared a crash-landing because of loads of jet fuel they were carrying. So a squadron of Thunderstreak jets came to the rescue, drawing fuel from the tankers. After refueling, the jets would dive to sea level, where fuel consumption is highest, burn out their loads, and return for more. The "flying gas stations" landed safely.

In 1933 an additional three acres of land was purchased from W. Guy Houghton, and this was the third addition to the cemetery, and this land was surveyed into 377 burial lots. The cemetery now comprises 6 acres of land.

Start Series Of Benefits
The first united effort to provide for the care of the cemetery was initiated in 1941, when a few interested people promoted a fish and chicken fry to provide funds for leveling the yard and permit the use of lawn mowers.

The first picnic netted $332.73. Since then the picnic has become an annual affair, and has steadily grown in popularity and also from a financial standpoint, reaching a peak in 1953 when the amount of $4683 was taken in. That year the crowd consumed 800 lbs. of fish and 1500 lbs. of chicken.

The picnic is sponsored by the people of the Patterson and Hillview communities, and has gained popularity because of the fact that it is not a cafeteria style dinner, but is set on the table and has always made good on the slogan, "all you can eat for $1!"

Now one of the best kept cemeteries in this part of the state, it is an outstanding demonstration of what can be accomplished when a community works together for a common cause.

The fifteenth picnic will be held the second Thursday in August in the new gymnasium, which is being built on the Patterson school grounds.

The affairs of the cemetery are managed by a board of trustees consisting of Buford Dawdy, president; Guy Sorrells, secretary; and board members, Raymond Meyer, Myron Bushnell and Gerald Berg.

No penalties were announced for further failure.

CAN ILLINOIS
AFFORD TO FEED A
$34,000,000
WHITE ELEPHANT
ON CHICAGO'S LAKE FRONT?

Overgrown exposition hall is not needed, will not support itself, will benefit only a few special-interest groups at the expense of the whole state!

HAVE YOU NOTICED the big publicity balloon supporting the proposed $34,000,000 exposition hall to be erected in Chicago's Burnham Park (23rd St. and the lake)? The project is painted in glowing terms, and never a dissenting voice has been heard, until recently.

Recently, serious-minded citizens in Chicago and all over Illinois—who are not in the Loop restaurant and hotel business—have begun to examine this project on its merits. A surprising picture develops:

The shining glass walls, the splendid exterior, the vast sweep of this "dream structure" prove to be nothing more than the shell of a gigantic White Elephant!

A White Elephant that will be put to pasture smack in the middle of Chicago's green and lovely lake front! A White Elephant whose appetite for hay (public funds) has grown by leaps and bounds until it is enormous and unpredictable!

Unless this public parasite is exposed in its true light, it will be feeding in Chicago's front yard before you can say "dream boat!" So let's start at the beginning, when the Elephant was only a gleam in a profit-hungry eye:

In 1953, a bill came before the State Legislature for a new convention hall and exposition building, to be erected in Chicago with state funds. Then, as now, Chicago had more convention space than is ever put to use!

Public and privately-owned convention facilities in Chicago total 1,096,000 square feet of space—the largest and most adequate facilities anywhere in the country! Yet its halls and auditoriums are vacant a large part of the time!

In the same year of 1953, the cost of the proposed hall was given by its proponents as $8,600,000. We questioned this figure in a public message, on the basis of our knowledge of building costs, and predicted that the new structure might cost as high as $30,000,000.

We were right! Now, two years later, its backers are asking for $34,000,000! Can they explain how the figure grew four times its size in only two years? Mighty rich diet—even for an elephant!

Those who favor the convention hall have unrealistically estimated income too high, and expenses too low, for this "dream project." Just as a sample, it has already been stated publicly that the new structure is expected to bring rentals of 65¢ a square foot for exhibit space. This is about 2½ times the rentals charged in other cities—yet it is used as the basis for estimates of profit reaching as high as $2,600,000 a year! A dream figure founded on wishful thinking that bears no relation to what exhibitors can and will pay—as shown by the combined experience of the country's exhibition halls!

In our opinion, based on actual experience in the management of other buildings, the operations of this proposed convention hall will suffer substantial losses even before interest is paid on this fantastic debt. Ask yourself who will pay this loss? Could it be you?

Those who want this White Elephant of a convention hall—for whatever reasons—will tell you that the money comes from a tax on the betting at race tracks. What they don't tell you is that the State Legislature could appropriate this money for many other, better purposes.

The Legislature could use this money to support fairs and expositions throughout the state—not just in Cook County.

The Legislature could use this money to improve needed State services, such as public playgrounds, highways, schools, mental health institutions and to curb juvenile delinquency.

The Legislature could use this money to help solve the needs of cities, including Chicago, for better police and fire protection, education and public health.

THE TRUTH IS THAT PUBLIC FUNDS FROM WHAT-EVER SOURCE OUGHT TO BE USED FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES LIKE THOSE MENTIONED—BUT PRIVATE CAPITAL SHOULD AND WILL BUILD THE CONVENTION FACILITIES CHICAGO REALLY NEEDS.

How do we know private capital will do what's needed, without expense to any taxpayer? Because, for example, we have just added 188,000 square feet to the International Amphitheatre—upping its total to more than 460,000 and making it the largest exposition hall under one roof in the United States.

"Aha!" the friends of the Elephant will break in here, "Selfish interest! Competition!" Well, actions speak louder than words. Consider these facts:

The International Livestock Show, and the 4-H Club Congress that goes with it, constitute one of Chicago's biggest sources of pride. In 1953 it brought more than half a million visitors to the city, but lost $100,000 for the Amphitheatre.

For 50 years the Union Stockyard and Transit Company (owners of the International Amphitheatre) has been proud to underwrite the deficits of the Livestock Show, and to play host to thousands of up-and-coming youngsters in 4-H and the Future Farmers of America.

Does that sound very selfish to you? Or would you rather do business with a hungry elephant?

William Wood Rine

Chairman, International Livestock Exposition;
President, Union Stockyard and Transit Company

DRIVE THE WHITE ELEPHANT AWAY FROM THE PUBLIC-FUNDS TROUGH!

You can stop this hungry hay-burner! Just tell the Legislature that you want public funds spent for public purposes—not for a White Elephant like the Chicago convention hall. Write or wire any of the following, asking them to oppose and vote against House Bills 733, 734 and 735:

RED EQUIPMENT FAILS
TOKYO (AP)—Chinese Communist doctors and nurses don't think much of the medical tools they get from Russia, says a Japanese physician recently returned from Red captivity.

"They break down too often," says Dr. Katsuhide Akashi in a magazine article, "Russian syringes, for instance, don't stand boiling-disinfection and break down quickly."

He says when instruments are broken, all concerned must take part in numerous "self-criticism conferences" and make "self-criticizing statements."

"Therefore," Akashi adds, "even the Chinese doctors and nurses just display the Russian things, but use American or Japanese-made things."

The United States had almost 34 times as many non-farm dwellings in 1950 as in 1900.

DAIRY STATISTICS

TROY, Vt. (AP)—The Vermont building at the Eastern States Exposition will exhibit two 3700-pound cheeses this summer—to help focus attention on the Green Mountain state's cheddar.

To make such a cheese, the United Farmers of New England says, requires the milk for one day from about 1300 average dairy cows—about 17,000 quarts. Aging time is 15 months. There is enough cheese for 60,000 sandwiches which would require 6,000 loaves of bread.

If you like butter in your sandwiches, the dairy farmers would have to supply about 1200 pounds—made from 12,000 quarts of milk.

MATTER OF TIMING

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—The Rev. J. J. Scherer wants his reward in the hereafter—but all in due time. Dr. Scherer, a Lutheran clergyman in Richmond for nearly 50 years, told a group of Roanoke Ministers:

Point West And Asbury Units At Farm Bureau Hall

The Asbury and Point West Units held a joint meeting recently at the Farm Bureau hall. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Ray Bourn, chairman of the Asbury Unit. The pledge of allegiance was led by Mrs. Don English.

The chairman then presented Miss Hazel Graves the new Home Adviser. Two suggestions were made by the Home Adviser, one that meetings be held in the homes in preference to public meeting places and that the lessons be given before the business meeting which has been the usual procedure. "Color In the Home," the major lesson, was then given by Miss Graves. "Color is one of the best and least expensive means of making the inside of a house pleasant and attractive" with only a small amount of money said Miss Graves.

Mrs. M. A. Summers of Point West presented the selected subject "Refreshing Drinks," one of which was used as part of the afternoon refreshment.

A short business meeting was held. Mrs. Ray Bourn read the Highlights of the Board. All those interested in making tours to St. Louis were asked to register during the afternoon. The minutes of the Asbury Unit were read by Mrs. Harry Driver. Miss Juanita Coultas called the roll for Point West which was answered 100% by those present. Roll call was answered 100% by the Asbury Unit. Mrs. Charles Johnson was a guest of the Asbury Unit.

Mrs. Albert McNeely announced that Charles B. Shuman, American Farm Bureau president, will be a guest speaker at Illinois College commencement Sunday, June 12, on

Crimsons Defeat Rockets 7-4 In Sub-District Finals

Blueboys Nip Greenville 12-11 In 9th

Hazelrigg's 4th Hit Bats In Winning Run; Farmer Wins In Relief

Illinois College fought back from a six run deficit at one point and a five run deficit at another to defeat a visiting Greenville College nine 12-11 in a free swinging contest on the IC field yesterday afternoon.

The Blueboys added three more runs in the fifth to tie the score at 6 all when they combed Wahlen for five hits. Singles by Hazelrigg, Merriam, Winstead and Ingle plus a triple by Bill Horsley accounted for the damage.

But the visitors weren't to be held. They came back to take the lead once more with three runs in the sixth and added two in the seventh to take a five run lead.

IC exploded for five runs in the half of the seventh to tie the score once more on hits by Barnes, Hazelrigg and Merriam plus four bases on balls. This was the final scoring in the contest until the bottom of the 9th when the Millermen scored the winning run.

Gene Farmer came on to relieve Curfman in the eighth inning and registered his sixth win.

Curfman, in his first start of the season, pitched good enough ball in the opening innings but was the victim of some unusual circumstances.

Don Hazelrigg paced the hitting attack for the Blueboys with four hits—all singles.

It was IC's 7th win and fourth straight triumph of the season to go with six losses. The Blueboys travel to Eureka Friday for a PCC contest with the Redbirds.

Boxer Remembers Starting Bout But Doesn't Recall Fighting The Two Rounds

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Boxer Harold Johnson said Wednesday he remembers entering the ring the night of May 6 to fight Julio Mederos in a nationally televised fight—a contest described as "a fake" by the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission—but doesn't remember fighting the two rounds of the bout.

Commission doctors said Johnson was drugged and didn't come out of his fog until several hours later in Hahnemann Hospital.

"When I woke up I thought I was at home," said the 26-year-old Philadelphia Negro at a commission investigation into the fiasco awarded to Mederos by a technical knockout decision.

Johnson, No. 1 light heavyweight title contender, featured his testimony before the referee, Johnson said, he returned to his corner and "I don't remember what happened after that. I don't remember the first round, or the second either."

Johnson told the three-member commission, trying to find out who drugged the fighter and how, that a stranger gave him the orange shortly after the noon weigh-in on the day of the fight.

Hospital tests showed Johnson had been drugged by a barbiturate.

Five principals in the affair—Johnson, matchmaker Pete Moran and three of the fighter's associates—have been charged by the commission with participating in "a sham, fake or collusive boxing match."

Johnson told the commission he ate the gift orange about an hour before the fight's scheduled start and 15 minutes later felt pains in his chest. He said he also was nauseous and barely could lift his feet.

After receiving pre-fight instructions from the referee, Johnson said, he returned to his corner and "I don't remember what happened after that. I don't remember the first round, or the second either."

Cubs Trip Phils Twice, 3-2, 7-5; Sam Jones Wins

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs blasted three homers and capped their scoring with a four-run fifth to whip the skidding Philadelphia Phillies 7-5 Wednesday after taking the opener of the doubleheader 3-2 behind Sam Jones.

The Cubs gave 9,329 Wrigley Field fans home run thrills in the second game as Ted Tappe slammed one behind Randy Jackson's double in the second inning and Ernie Banks rapped one of the inside-the-park variety in the fourth.

But the Phils also had turned on the power in the meantime and led 4-3 entering the fifth after Bob Morgan's homer in the second and two more in the fourth, by Stan Lopata, that scored Earl Torgeson, and pitcher Murry Dickson's first of the season.

Gene Baker smashed a two-run triple for the Cubs in the fifth that brought on Lynn Lovenguth to replace Dickson. Bob Speake greeted the new hurler with his No. 4 circuit smash.

The double defeat gave the Phils 15 losses in their last 16 starts.

In the opener Jones was making his first start since last Thursday's no-hitter. He fanned 10 for his fifth victory but failed to finish. Hal Jeffcoat took over in the ninth and retired the threatening Phils in order. Jones yielded six hits and walked eight.

DETROIT (AP)—Former featherweight champion Willie Pep capitalized on 15 years' ring experience Wednesday night by unanimously outpointing Gil Cadilli of Los Angeles in a 10-round nationally televised fight at Olympia Stadium.

Pep, of Hartford, Conn., weighed 128 1/2, Cadilli 126 1/2.

Both fighters displayed lightning speed in early rounds but Pep, boxing his 19th bout, had just too much experience for the comparatively beginner from the coast.

Referee Jackie Swartz gave Pep a perfect 10 points to 82 for Cadilli. Under Michigan's 10-point system which gives the winner of a round a flat 10 points, Judges Joe Greenberg and Andy Brown had it 99-87 for the veteran Pep.

The 32-year-old Pep was pursued steadily in the fifth when the 23-year-old Cadilli apparently thought Pep was tiring. But the moment Cadilli would open up with a flurry Pep would catch him at his own game, returning a barrage of lefts and rights.

Commission, trying to find out who drugged the fighter and how, that a stranger gave him the orange shortly after the noon weigh-in on the day of the fight.

Score Hurls, Indians Pound Red Sox 19-0

BOSTON (AP)—Herb Score, Cleveland's whip-arm rookie lefthander, shut out Boston on three hits Wednesday while the vaunted power of the American League leaders broke loose for an 11-run fifth inning and a 19-0 victory.

Vic Wertz drove in five runs with a grand slam homer and a single in the big inning to come within two of the major league record. Ralph Kiner contributed a homer and Dave Philley a two-run triple.

Red Sox catcher Sammy White's double just over Dave Pope's head off the centerfield wall in the fifth was the first hit off Score.

The 21-year-old yielded the other hits in the eighth—Billy Goodman's single off third baseman Al Smith's glove and Ted Lepcio's clean hit to left.

It was Score's fourth triumph, second at Boston's expense. He beat the Sox 2-1 at Cleveland May 1 while striking out 16.

Score fanned 9 Wednesday to raise his total to 66 in 56 innings. He walked three. He recorded 330 strikeouts in the American Assn. with Indianapolis last year.

Score set down the first eight batters before he walked Willard Nixon in the third. He struck out the side in the fourth with a walk sandwiched in.

Cleveland's big fifth in which 15 batters stepped to the plate sealed Boston's fate and chased starter and loser Nixon for his third loss against four victories.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The hit-starved Washington Senators punched over four runs in the first inning Wednesday and then coasted to an easy 7-2 victory over the Kansas City Athletics behind the steady pitching of Dean Stone.

Stone rallied from a shaky start to pitch the Senators back into sixth place in the American League.

The A's had two big scoring chances but were able to capitalize only in the fifth when they scored two runs on four of their nine singles.

Hank Thompson's two-run single was the key blow as the Giants fastened loss No. four on Milwaukee's southpaw veteran, Lefty Johnny Antonelli, once Milwaukee property, went the route, giving up six hits and only one walk for his fourth triumph against four setbacks.

Spahn had a three-hitter and a 2-0 lead going into the sixth. Al Dark opened with a single to left and after Don Mueller fouled out Spahn fell down with a pair of walks to Monte Irvin and Willie Mays.

Thompson's bases full single shot down the right field line, scoring Dark and Irvin. Whitey Lockman fanned but catcher Ray Katt drove a single into center field to push Mays home with the winning run.

Spahn was lifted for a pinchhitter in the seventh.

The Giants got one unearned run off reliever Dave Jolly in the eighth on bobbles by second baseman Danny O'Connell and Jolly.

O'Connell threw wild to first on Lockman's grounder and Jolly fumbled pinch hitter Dusty Rhodes' grounder, allowing Thompson, who had walked, to come in.

Joe Adcock's fourth homer of the season—a poke over the center field fence—set the Braves up to a 1-0 lead in the second. Billy Bruton was hit by a pitch in the fifth, sacrificed to second by Johnny Logan and went to third as Andy Pafko was grounding out. Hank Aaron beat out a slow grounder to Thompson at third and Bruton making it 2-0 for the Braves.

Crimsons 2nd In Central Loop Track Meet

The Jacksonville High School track team ended its 1955 season Tuesday night and finished second in the annual Central Conference track meet.

The Jacks scored a total of 38 1/2 points as against 58 1/2 scored by Lanphier, who retained their track leadership in the eight team conference.

Clinton was third with 36, Carlinville fourth with 35, Lakeview had 20, Beardstown 16, Feltshans 16, Cathedral 5, and St. Teresa finished last.

Jacksonville's Kent Dawson, who broke the district record last week with a toss of 147 feet, took first place honors in the central discus toss with a heave of 138-11 1/2.

George Stevens, another JHS athlete, was third in the same event.

Dawson was also second in the shot. Jacksonville picked up points in the broad jump as Jimmie Green came in third and Walker got fourth.

Jacksonville's Jordan was fourth in the high jump as the winner, Fabianbacker of Cathedral, set the pace with a jump of 5-11 1/2. Jording of Jacksonville was fourth in the mile while JHS's Green came in fourth in the 100 yard dash. Green finished the same fourth in the 220. Dawson was fifth in the 220 yard dash.

Jacksonville's 880 relay team consisting of Wright, Jackson, Jordan and Watson, came in fifth. The winners' time was 1:38.

Jacksonville's Moe came in fourth in the 120 yard high hurdles while Belinson was fifth in the 180 yard hurdles.

The Crimsons' Freshman-sophomore relay team of Mather, Walker, Belinson and Green, won the event with a time of 1:40.2. McKee, Wallace, Jording and Dawson ran in the mile relay for the Jacks.

The meet was held on the Springfield High field.

Tigers Score 3 In 10th, Jar Orioles 6-3

BALTIMORE (AP)—Frank Lary held the Baltimore Orioles hitless for the first five innings and was reached for only five hits after that, but needed a three-run spurge by his Detroit mates in the 10th inning to win 6-3 Wednesday.

The 24-year-old right-hander was on the verge twice of losing the game after the Orioles tied the game 3-3 in the sixth when they scored all their runs.

It was up to Al Kaline, the youngster two years out of a Baltimore high school, to sew up Lary's third victory in seven decisions. Kaline knocked in Harvey Kuenn from second base with a single and Fred Hatfield's single drove in two more.

Yankees Blast Chisox 11-6 In Homer Spree

NEW YORK (AP)—Chicago outfielder Minnie Minoso barely escaped serious injury Wednesday when he was hit on the head by a pitched ball in a wild home run duel won by the New York Yankees over the White Sox 11-6.

Mickey Mantle's grand slam homer for the Yankees in the seventh climaxed the slugfest which produced a total of six homers to plague four Chicago and two Yankee pitchers.

Cards Take 5th Straight, Nip Dodgers 3-2

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Harvey Haddix, continuing sensational St. Louis pitching that has permitted only three runs the last five games, Wednesday night broke a personal five-game losing streak and handed the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers their third straight setback, 3-2.

The Cardinals' fifth straight victory and seventh in the last eight games was a result of two Dodger errors that made two of St. Louis runs unearned.

Southpaw Johnny Podres, who committed one of the two damaging miscues, was charged with his second defeat against four victories even though he yielded only four hits in six innings, just one after the second game.

Only one Redbird reached base after the second against Podres and reliever Clem Labine.

Haddix, yielding seven hits, needed help in the ninth inning when Frank Keller's second double put the tying run on base with one out. Rookie right-hander Barney Schultz, taking over, struck out pinchhitter Sandy Amoros and retired another pinch-batter, Rube Walker, on a soft infield grounder.

The Cardinals scored their first two runs in the opening inning when Podres fumbled Bill Virdon's grounder for an error. Wally Moon singled and Stan Musial walked to load the bases with none out.

Then Bill Sarni brought one man home with an infield safety and the second scored on Red Schoendienst's sacrifice fly.

The Redbirds finally tally came in the second inning when Alex Grammas belted a double to the right field corner and romped home as Pee Wee Reese bobbled Haddix's grounder at shortstop.

Brooklyn came back with one run in the fourth when Carl Furillo walked and scored on Gil Hodges' double.

Then in the ninth, Hodges singled to left and scored on Keller's double to center. That was all for Brooklyn as Schultz came on to put out the fire.

Jacks At Pittsfield Today At 4 O'Clock In District Finals

The Jacksonville Crimsons moved into the finals of the district tournament with a 7-4 victory over the Rout Rockets in sub-district play on the JHS diamond yesterday afternoon. The victory enables the Crimsons to meet the Pittsfield Saukees in the district finals at Pittsfield this afternoon. The winner of this contest plays the Springfield district winner in the first game of the Springfield sectional.

The Rockets got to Crimson hurler Larry Scott for a pair of runs in the first inning and single markers in the fifth and sixth. The JHS southpaw permitted just two safeties as he struck out nine Rockets in his seven inning stint on the mound.

Joe Shanahan started on the hill for Routt and allowed all seven of the Jacksonville runs before giving way to Pat Dowling in the seventh.

Dowling set the Jacks down in order in the final inning.

The Rockets' two runs in the initial frame came on a hit batsman, a walk and Long's single. The Jacks came back in the second to score four times and take a 4-2 lead. After leadoff man Lewis was safe on an error Danny Woodward singled and Max Roegge was safe on another Routt bobble. All three runs scored as Larry Scott singled and Rich Fernandez connected for a triple.

The Crimsons added a single marker in the fourth on a triple by Roegge and came back in the fifth for a pair on five hits—singles by J. Woodward, McEvers, Fairfield, D. Woodward and Bill Nunn.

Routt's single runs in the fifth and sixth were the result of Jacksonville fielding lapses. Five Jacksonville errors and a walk gave the Rockets two runs without the benefit of a hit.

Richie Fernandez paced the Jacks' hitting attack with three hits in four trips including a three bagger. Long and Doolin got the only safeties off Scott.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (U. S. government bond prices declined Wednesday while the corporate bond market fluctuated narrowly.

Dealers in Treasury securities said they marked prices down slightly as demand slackened. Investment quality corporates lost ground as "Big Board" volume declined to $3,233,000 par value from $3,960,000 Tuesday. The Associated Press average of low-yield bonds declined to a new 1955 low.

NEW YORK (U. S. Heavy demand for aircraft sent them soaring ahead Wednesday and turned the stock market higher after two days of decline.

Many leading aircraft were up between $3 and $5, and gains of $1 to $3 were frequent in the rest of the market.

Aircraft have been favorite targets of sellers in recent sessions, and their cumulative weakness has been a marked feature of the three-week market decline.

Attention was focused on aircraft by the Washington debate whether American airpower was second to Russia. Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), former Air Force secretary, asked for an investigation of American air defenses in view of Russia's buildup.

President Eisenhower at his press conference stated that it just isn't true that the United States has lost air control.

Steels, motors, rails, chemicals and many individual issues were higher along with aircraft. There were no divisions depressed, but some ended mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up $1.50 at $161.70. On Monday and Tuesday the average lost $2.30 altogether. The industrial component Wednesday gained $2.40, railroads were up $1.40, and utilities remained unchanged.

The American Stock Exchange was mostly higher on volume of 680,000 shares. That compares with 650,000 shares Tuesday.

BEANS, NEW CROP WHEAT EASE

By WILLIAM FERRIS

CHICAGO (U. S. In a mixed grain market soybeans and new crop wheat eased while feed grains held steady and May wheat scored a small gain on the Board of Trade Wednesday.

Trading in all grains was rather slow with no excitement developing in the May futures, which was in contrast with the action of May wheat at Kansas City and Minneapolis.

In those two hard wheat markets the shorts in the May contract displayed considerable nervousness. May wheat ended 5 1/2 higher at Minneapolis and 3 1/4 higher at Kansas. Trading in May futures at all markets ends at the close Thursday.

Wheat at Chicago closed 1/2 lower to 3/4 higher, corn unchanged to 1/4 higher, oats 1/4 lower to 1/4 higher, rye 3/4-1 1/4 lower, soybeans 3/4 to 2 cents lower and lard 5 to 20 cents a hundred pounds lower.

May soybeans did better than the deferred months, although still ending fractionally lower. Quite a few May bean contracts were closed out Tuesday and the open interest at 9,984,000 bushels dropped below that in May wheat.

Wonderful weather in the main producing belt was one factor behind the slump in new crop soybeans. In the cash market bean meal held unchanged at $52.50 to $53.00 a ton, which is the five year low set Tuesday.

Hyena Loose On Journey Laughs; No One Else Does

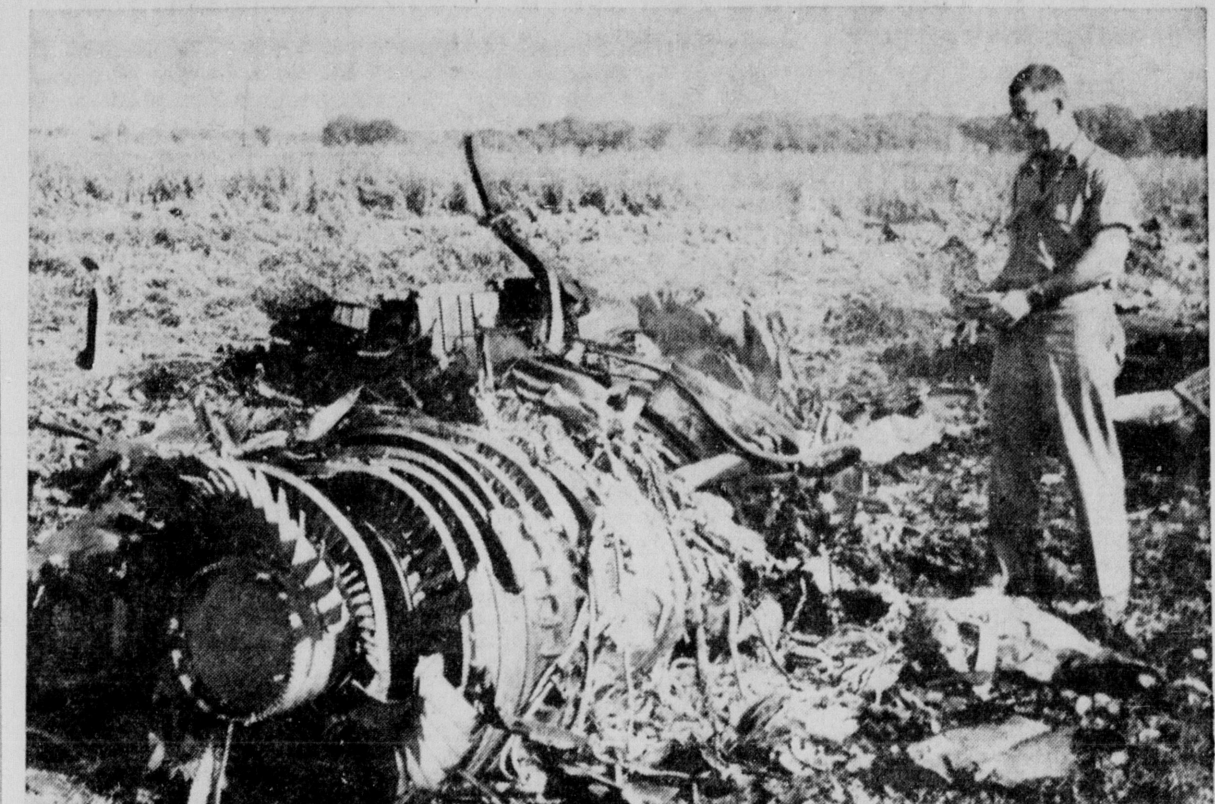

CHICAGO (U. S. A.)—A 100-pound hyena broke loose in a railroad baggage car today and it was no laughing matter.

Experts had to be called from the Anti-Cruelty Society to catch and cage the snarling animal which devoured a crate of frozen fish shipped in the same car.

The animal, en route to Lincoln Park Zoo, broke out of his cage as the Chicago and Eastern Illinois train passed Terre Haute, Ind. A Railway Express Agency employee discovered the break and barred the car doors.

When the car reached the loading dock at Dearborn Station, workers from the Anti-Cruelty Society were summoned. They snared the hyena with a rope and recreated it for the trip to the zoo.

TEST PILOT KILLED IN GREENE COUNTY

DICK BELL, publisher of the White Hall Register-Republican, inspects the remains of the jet engine of the plane that fell Wednesday afternoon on the Hubbard farm six miles northwest of Carrollton. The pilot, Robert Strange, 32, the father of four children, was found dead 150 feet south of the wreckage.

GIDEON ELMORE of Kirksville, Mo., a member of the McDonnell Aircraft protection and security force, is shown viewing a part of the wreckage that landed 200 feet north of the spot where the plane torpedoed into the land, and 350 feet north of where the pilot was found dead.

Military Reserves Bill Expected To Get OK In House

WASHINGTON (U. S. A.)—The administration's program to build up the military reserves was expected to pass the House intact today despite efforts to soften or kill it.

Rep. Brooks (D-La.) predicted it would pass without major amendments, but only after a fight. Brooks leads House forces backing the legislation.

President Eisenhower is behind the measure to give the military limited authority to enforce reserve obligations and to provide a new plan for training up to one million teen-age volunteers in four years.

In one key provision, the measure would authorize the Pentagon to recall for 45 days' active duty reservists who fail to maintain a minimum of 84 weekly drills and 15 days' summer training a year, or the equivalent.

Public defenders Quinn Dickson and Gordon L. Patten advised their client to enter the plea in belief she would receive the life term and later be committed to a state mental hospital.

A sanity hearing jury this month took only 15 minutes to decide the cheerful widow was legally sane and could be tried.

Grandma Doss 'Not Worried'; Admits Killing Husband

TULSA, Okla. (U. S. A.)—After pleading guilty Tuesday to poisoning husband No. 5, Grandma Nannie Doss admonished her daughter not to worry because "I'm not worried."

The surprise plea, entered in District Court after the confessed poisoner of four husbands was visited by the daughter, reversed her earlier plea of innocent.

The daughter, Mrs. Melvina Hedrick, born of Mrs. Doss' first marriage to Charley Brazz, told a newsman her visit from Lexington, N.C., had nothing to do with her mother's sudden decision to tell the court she was guilty of killing Samuel Doss, 59, with rat poison.

Mrs. Doss, who had been scheduled for trial next month for Doss' death last Oct. 10, faces either life in prison or death.

Judge Elmer Adams explained carefully to the 49-year-old widow the possible punishment he will decide on May 31. County Atty. J. Howard Edmondson said he would ask for death in the electric chair.

Public defenders Quinn Dickson and Gordon L. Patten advised their client to enter the plea in belief she would receive the life term and later be committed to a state mental hospital.

A sanity hearing jury this month took only 15 minutes to decide the cheerful widow was legally sane and could be tried.

Warren Says Rule On Segregation To Precede Recess

WASHINGTON (U. S. A.)—Chief Justice Warren indicated today the Supreme Court will rule before recessing for the summer on how and when to end segregation of white and Negro pupils in the public schools.

Warren said in an address prepared for the American Law Institute that despite an increase this year in the volume of Supreme Court work, the court has been keeping abreast of it, and he added: "This means that our work is on a current basis and, as has been the practice for many years, action in all argued cases is expected to be announced prior to adjournment."

The court completed hearing arguments a month ago on the form of a decree to carry out its unanimous decision of May 17, 1954, holding that racial segregation in the public schools violates the Constitution.

Queen Juliana Seeks Leader To Form New Cabinet

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (U. S. A.)—The first Dutch government crisis in nearly three years sent Queen Juliana searching today for a political leader to form a new cabinet.

Premier Willem Drees submitted his coalition Cabinet's resignation Tuesday night after losing a vote of confidence in Parliament's lower chamber 50-48. The vote came on a government bill to raise rent ceilings 10 per cent on about one third of Holland's rented homes.

Because the rent issue is a major point of controversy between the country's two major parties, the Catholics and Drees' Laborites, political circles predicted a long crisis. Each party has 30 of the 100 seats in the second chamber.

The Laborites deserted Drees to vote solidly against the rent bill. They said they would agree to it only if wages were raised simultaneously.

Jet Test Pilot Killed When Plane Dives Into Field Near Carrollton

Robert Strange, who had a relatively long and colorful career as a test pilot, died at 3:15 p. m. Wednesday when his plane, a hot-shot Navy experimental model, plowed into an alfalfa field six miles northwest of Carrollton.

He was 32-years-old. The plane, made by the McDonnell Aircraft Company of St. Louis, was a revised model of the one that dived down and killed its pilot near Grafton two months ago.

Jury Selected; Burglary Trial In Second Day

Several law enforcement officials and former officers took the witness stand in Morgan county circuit court Wednesday, where Ethel Rogers of Alton is on trial on a charge of burglary with intent to commit larceny.

Deputy Sheriff Ray Lyman of Pike county testified on behalf of the prosecution, followed by Harry Simmons and Ross Crowcroft, former Morgan county deputy sheriffs. Lyman was sheriff at the time Ethel Rogers was a prisoner in Jail at Pittsfield.

During cross-examination Lyman read portions of a purported statement the defendant made after her arrest, admitting that she participated in the burglary of the home of Mildred Zeller in Alexander in September 1953.

State's Attorney Albert Hall and Assistant State's Attorney W. T. Wilson are prosecuting the case; the defendant is represented by Attorney Irving Wiseman of Alton.

Selection of a jury was completed at 2 p. m. Tuesday, after which attorneys made opening statements, followed by introduction of evidence. Jurors are Joe Gailther, Clarence Westrope, Margaret Quigg, James V. Gooden, Cloyce A. Reeve, Nora Jordan, Marjorie A. Enke, Roscoe J. Wright, R. G. Baker, John Yording, Fred J. German and Beulah M. Patterson.

Bill Would Repeal Penalty For Skip Of Set Acreage

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to repeal one of the penalties on farmers who do not abide by acreage controls in the farm price support program was sent to the White House Tuesday.

The Senate approved the House-passed measure by a voice vote after rejecting by a 49-35 rollcall vote a compromise proposal. The Agriculture Department has endorsed it. The bill would abolish a provision of the 1954 farm law which denies soil conservation benefit payments to any farmer who knowingly violates acreage allotments on basic crops. These are corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts. It would leave unchanged the government's main weapon for enforcing compliance with acreage quotas—the right to impose direct monetary penalty levies against violators.

Strange was flying straight north at the time. A companion in another single-engine jet was near him. Strange was in radio-communication with top executives of the McDonnell firm a minute before he was killed.

The canopy of his plane was found in a field two miles to the south. He and his ejector seat were found about 150 feet south of the wreckage. He apparently died instantly.

The plane's nose created a crater about 15 feet in diameter and eight feet wide. The whole thing then bounced up and littered the area for another 150 feet.

Engine Thrown Clear
The engine of the plane landed 150 feet north of the crater.

Navy officials and officers of the plane company declined to answer newsmen's questions. They did say that the ship was a fast, "all-weather" craft that was designed to take off and land on aircraft carriers. Some people around the area said that the ship was probably going "800-900" miles per hour when it hit the alfalfa field.

The plane landed on the Harvey Hubbard farm, just across from the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Ballard.

Ballard was planting soybeans a quarter-mile north.

"I heard a thud. Then I heard the noise of a plane flying overhead," he said.

He said that he looked to the south as flames jumped high. His wife, Martha, called Sheriff Fred Ballard at Carrollton and the Carrollton fire department came to the scene. They doused the flames, but in the crater, three hours later, gasoline or some other fuel still puffed flames upwards intermittently.

Hundreds of people were attracted to the scene and state highway patrolmen had a hard job keeping roads clear. McDonnell Aircraft security policemen were on the scene first since some of the people there were in radio communication with the pilot before he died.

There were a lot of photographers on the scene, but they failed to get a single good picture. The wreckage was strewn from the crater where the plane first hit and to the north for 200 feet, with bits of wire and metal and instruments, etc., all along the way.

Aiding at the scene of the accident were Sheriff Fred Ballard and his assistants and Coroner Wm. H. Wolfe of Greene county.

Strange, married and the father of four children, was a native of Sumner, N. C.

Blood-Stained Car Spurs Search For Ex-Con's Employees

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—Police continued their search today for two former employees of ex-convict Frank (Buster) Wortman after finding the bullet-riddled, blood-stained car of one of the men and a shirt with a bullet hole.

The Cadillac car was found Tuesday in the driveway at the home of Kenneth Mueller, a former doorman at Wortman's Terrace Lounge.

Sought with Mueller was Berney T. Havesy, who formerly managed the lounge and who police said was reported to have been fired after a fight several months ago with two off-duty policemen.

Eight bullet holes were found in Mueller's car. There were bloodstains on the front seat. Police said the shooting probably took place somewhere else and the car was then driven to the spot where it was found.

Officers also found a trail of blood leading to the two men's apartment and bloodstains on the bed, a pillow and a damp towel which had been tossed on the bed inside the home. The shirt was found inside also.

Mueller and Havesy both were arrested and held briefly by police last Thursday following a raid on their apartment made at the direction of Russell T. Bebbie, police commissioner.

The officers, searching for gambling equipment, found a large roll of telephone wire, racing forms and a telephone battery in the apartment. No charges were filed against the pair, released from custody after questioning.

Bebbie earlier had said he was redoubling efforts to break up handbook operations after a bomb was exploded under his official car last May 7. He said he thought the bombing was in retaliation for a raid he led earlier on rooms over the lounge.

Organist Bothered By Over Ardent Admirer Of Music

CHICAGO (AP)—Judge Cornelius J. Harrington says he believes in freedom of worship but that he had to draw the line somewhere for Miss Harriet Davis.

He drew the line in Circuit Court Tuesday. He said that if the slightly plump, 35-year-old brunette attends a church in suburban Glenview again he will hold her in contempt of court.

Miss Davis appeared in court to have set aside an injunction restraining her from "bothering" Robert Metzler, a 50-year-old church organist.

Metzler said Miss Davis' attentions had forced him to leave his job in a Chicago church and take another in Glenview. He said he got the injunction a few months ago when the church trustees told him to straighten out the situation—or else.

"I'm not interested in Mr. Metzler," explained Miss Davis. "I'm interested in his music. It sends me. There's something about it different from the music in any other church."

"Is that why you traveled 20 miles just to hear him play?" asked Judge Harrington.

"Yes, I have an entirely different emotional reaction when I hear him play."

Judge Harrington explained that he didn't like to interfere with any individual's right to worship, but that he thought Miss Davis should attend a church nearer her home.

Pipe Line Operations Shift To City; Work On Superior Avenue

Sections of 24 inch pipe to bring water from the Illinois river to Jacksonville's purification plant and Lake Mauvaisterre are now being delivered in the city, after several months of activities along the 23 mile line at other points.

The work swung to the vicinity of the water treatment plant on East Superior avenue this week, and will continue until the line is ready for use sometime this summer.

Delivery of pipe started on East Superior avenue near the plant, and will continue west along Superior and south on Hardin avenue, then west on Michigan avenue. Delivery of pipe also is scheduled for Massey Lane and Mound Road.

Huge trucks have been hauling prestressed concrete pipe from the factory of Price Brothers, Dayton, Ohio, since last fall. Until this week all of the pipe had gone to locations further west along the route, along the sight of incoming concrete pipe is an old one to most local residents. Citizens in scores of towns between this city and Dayton, Ohio, also have become accustomed to seeing the trucks and pipe roll by.

Price Brothers had delivered 19,977 miles of pipe on the project up to May 16, which is 79.09 completion of the contract.

Crew "A" of the Torsion Construction Co., Kansas City, Mo., is installing pipe along the highway west of Chapin, adjacent to the Louis Eiler property.

Crew "B" is working north of Mound avenue near the intersection of Plum and Locust streets.

Crew "C" a new work unit of the Torsion Co., was formed by taking a cadre from the other two crews and started at the water purification plant Tuesday. The new crew will work toward the "B" crew in the Mound avenue area.

A progress report compiled by Casler & Stapleton, consulting engineers, showed that 16,74 miles of pipe had been laid up to May 16, which is a 73.65 completion of the contract. Most of the line, extending from the deep well and pumping station north of Naples near the river, is 30 inch pipe. Several miles of the line closer to Jacksonville, where gravity helps the long boost from Naples, is 24 inch.

Work at the new pumping station on the river is progressing well. The Caldwell Engineering Co. has a crew working there, and the job is reported 95% completed. The roof was poured on the pump house structure Monday, electric panels are in place, and the pipe is complete.

The pipe line will be operated in conjunction with the supply in Lakes Mauvaisterre and Jacksonville, both of which have benefited from spring rains.

Examination On Constitution To Be Given Here

According to the present certification law, no teachers certificate issued after July 1, 1953 can be renewed for the first time unless the person holding the certificate passes an examination on the provisions and principles of the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Illinois.

It is not necessary for holders of regular limited certificates issued since July 1, 1953 to write the examination this year, Morgan county Supt. Wilfred E. Rice said, since certificates of this type are registered for three years before being renewed. However, they may take the examination at any time they wish during this three year period and it is necessary to pass the examination only once. Provisional certificates are renewed at the end of each two year period, which means that the holders of Provisional certificates issued during the period of July 1, 1953 to June 30, 1954 must pass this examination before their certificates can be renewed for the year beginning July 1, 1955.

The examination on the Constitution may be taken at the next regular teacher's examination, which will be held in the office of the County Superintendent of Schools on Friday, June 10, beginning at 8:30 a. m. (D.T.). Those wishing to write the examination should notify the office of the County Superintendent of Schools not later than May 25 in order that questions may be obtained from the Certification Board.

Showdown Fight Looms Between Railroads, All Other Segments Of Transportation Industry

By BEM PRICE
AP Newsfeatures Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A showdown such as hasn't been seen since the iron horse knocked out the stagecoach is building up in the nation's multi-billion dollar transportation industry.

The iron horse—at least a streamlined, dieselized version of the iron horse—is again a major participant in the battle.

On the other side are all other segments of the transportation industry: truckers, airlines, barge operators, buses, even pipeline operators.

The big issue is whether and to what extent the railroads should be unleashed of government controls designed to keep them from monopolizing the industry.

For 68 years the transport industry has been operated under federal regulation which Congress said should be so administered as to "recognize and preserve the inherent advantages" of each segment.

Freely translated, this means that each segment, including trains, buses and all others, has its own special niche in the transportation field.

It means also that no one segment should be permitted to run another out of business or to create a monopoly by taking control of another segment.

Now, however, an advisory committee set up by President Eisenhower has recommended that the "recognize and preserve" language be stripped from government policy as set forth in the Interstate Commerce Act.

Instead, the committee recommended last month that the policy read:

"To encourage and promote full transportation at charges not less than reasonable minimum charges, or more than reasonable maximum charges."

"To reduce economic regulation of the transportation industry to the minimum consistent with the public interest to the end that the inherent economic advantages, including cost and service advantages, of each mode of transportation may be realized in such a manner as to reflect its full competitive capabilities."

Who liked the committee's report and who didn't was quickly reflected in statements. William T. Paricy, president of the Assn. of American Railroads, said it was "distinctly encouraging."

Chester Thompson, executive director of the American Waterways Operators, Inc., opined, "It is pro-railroad 100 per cent. It was conceived by and for the railroads."

Neil J. Curry, president of the American Trucking Assn., said that "in the guise of attempting to improve competition in transportation, the recommendations ultimately would destroy effective competition."

Generally, the language of the committee's report is broad and vague, but if and when it is sent to Congress with specific White House recommendations the fur will fly in earnest.

This is the public beginning of an intense fight which long has been stewing inside the industry.

The skirmish lines have extended from the White House through Congress and state legislatures to highway cops. Since 1920 some 250 million dollars—and that probably is a low estimate—has been spent by the industry to influence voters and achieve competitive advantages through rate making and legislation.

In essence, the railroads have wanted to throw off nearly all government regulation. They want freedom to set up truck, barge, bus and even airline services as they deem fit.

The railroads maintain that their competitors are subsidized by the government, since they are permitted use of highways, airports and waterways built with public funds.

By contrast, the argument goes, railroads not only must build and maintain their own tracks and stations, but they are prevented by government regulation from competing for business on an all out basis.

Everyone else in the transportation field has sought to confine the railroads to the tracks and to maintain tight federal controls over rate making.

The biggest fear of other transportation segments is that the heavily financed railroads will be permitted to step into new fields and then indulge in rate cutting. They argue that this would result in bankruptcy for everybody but the railroads.

Other phases of the industry dispute the contention that they are given unfair advantage over the railroads by government subsidies. Each segment argues that it more than pays its own way; and that it is regulated just as strictly as the railroads.

Other means of transport have largely taken the passenger trade away from the railroads. And although railroads are carrying more tonnage than ever before in peacetime, their percentage of the total freight business is smaller. The railroads earned 3.25 per cent return on their capital investment last year, but they have wound p during the past three decades.

In the passenger field 86 per cent of all intercity travel is by automobile, leaving only 14 per cent to be divided by the mass transport industries.

A measure of what is happening is the fact that airlines passenger business is up 300 per cent since World War II. The bus and the train are being replaced by the car. Where speed is wanted, the trend is toward air.

The industry has been moving steadily toward a crisis since World War I, when trucks began taking to the highways in numbers. As competing forms of transportation came into being, the railroads began a steady drumfire of criticism against longstanding government regulation and subsidies.

One result was the appointment of the President's committee, which had as members Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks, Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, Budget Bureau Director Rowland R. Hughes and Arthur S. Fleming, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

There wasn't much in the committee's report that truckers and waterway operators liked.

In addition to proposing a change in basic policy, it assigned to railroads the major role in defense transportation. While truckers and waterway operators aren't arguing that in time of war the railroads should play a minor role, they are unhappy over being assigned, as a matter of policy, to a seemingly secondary role.

As to rates, the committee recommended that they be "allowed to reflect cost advantages whenever they exist and to their full extent." The report added that nothing should be hauled below cost.

Thompson, head of the waterways operators, didn't like this approach. Railroads, he said, would determine their own costs and they might argue that it costs them about as much to haul 100 tons 500 miles as it does to haul 1,000 tons the same distance.

The truckers were particularly unhappy over the following comparison by the committee of the respective roles of the truck and the train:

"In the case of railroads and motor carriers, their economic characteristics are virtually opposite, the one characterized by heavy investment and large elements of indirect and fixed costs while the other requires little investment and encounters a high proportion of direct and variable costs. The one is capable of long haul mass transportation at very low costs while the other can afford superior service conducted in relatively small units but at comparatively high costs beyond the shorter distance. Clearly they are fitted for different roles in the development of the most effective and coordinated transportation system."

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

Although it represents no fundamental change in the situation, Chou En-lai's statement that Red China will move toward acquisition of Formosa "by peaceful means as far as possible" does tend to ease Far Eastern tension, at least for the moment.

The Peiping regime is left, of course, free to determine how far it is possible.

Chou's emphatic attitude of the Bandung conference, however, makes it clear his factitious remarks are directed largely to that audience, which serves as something of a guarantee that he will not immediately violate them. Red China will do a lot more talking before she commits herself militarily.

Even though American policy as represented by the 7th Fleet practically assures no attack on Formosa under present circumstances — because the Reds know it couldn't succeed — Chou's statement permits continuation of the current "feeler" operations in a better atmosphere.

The Chinese Nationalists — and most other observers as well — will see little in it, but guile. It does, as they say, represent another effort to set up a Far Western Munich. It does tend to shift the burden for further approaches to negotiation to the United States.

Chou, with a wily turn of phrase, says negotiations are "daily becoming the unanimous demand" of nations and peoples who want to see peace. That comes only a few days after President Eisenhower's reference to a similar demand for Big Four negotiations over Europe.

The statement completely fails to meet the recent British request that Chou enlarge upon his Bandung suggestion for negotiations with the United States. He merely adds "alternate" ways, without specification, to the original Communist suggestion, made by Russia, that a 10-nation conference be held. Most of the other phraseology follows closely that of his Bandung announcement.

Red China, like the United States, continues to avoid commitments about Quemoy and Matsu, the offshore islands which were recently a focal point for a wordy hassle in the United States as to whether they should be included in America's firm determination to defend Formosa.

As the days pass, however — and it has now become a month since the Red buildup on the adjacent mainland which set off the excitement appears to have been designed more to bolster Peiping's diplomatic hand than as an immediate military threat.

New Fire House At Ashland To Be Dedicated

ASHLAND—The new fire department building, erected by the Ashland volunteer fire department to house three firefighting units, will be dedicated next Saturday night, May 21, at 8 p.m. (Standard Time). The ribbon will be cut by all firemen simultaneously. A dedication square dance will be held at the conclusion of the ceremonies.

The building is of concrete block and brick construction, and is being paid for entirely by the fire department.

A large rural area around Ashland also is served by the department. Many homes in the northeast section of Morgan county are given protection by the Ashland department.

A large crowd is expected to attend the dedication and dance.

Bluffs Society Installation Set For Next Sunday

BLUFFS—The woman's Society of Christian Service of the Bluffs Methodist Church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jane Woodson with Mrs. Merton Pond the assistant hostesses. Fifteen members answered roll call with a Bible verse with the word "word." Devotions were led by Mrs. Cor-leah Leonard and the program "Be Ye Doers of the Word" was given by Mrs. Harold Oakes. Mrs. Donald Merris, president, conducted the business session. Plans were made for the public installation service to be held at the regular worship service on Sunday, May 22, at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Harold Dodson, Mrs. Paul B. Smith and Mrs. Merris gave an interesting report on the annual Conference meeting they attended at Danville. The officers for the coming year plan to attend the Training school to be held Thursday, May 19, at Pittsfield and also Wednesday, May 18 at Rushville. Mrs. Margaret Watson, Mrs. Harold Oakes and Mrs. Jane Woodson were named to a committee to purchase dishes for the church kitchen and make a survey of the needs of the kitchen.

A contribution was made to the World Service Fund. All members of the Society and the church are asked to assist the young people in their money raising campaign to secure funds to attend church
